Reflection: They're in the sun

They're in the sun, the wind, the rain, they're in the joy and they're in the pain.
 They're in the air you breathe each day, they're love is near, it's here to stay.
 They sing their songs of hope and cheer, they're free from pain, and free from fear.
 You'll see them in the clouds above, you'll hear them whisper words of love.
 You'll be together, when your time is done, Until then, may you hear their song.

Parish/Diocesan News

COVID-19 - Reframing the Challenge, Continuing Our Recovery and Reconnecting (www.Gov.ie): Religious services and ceremonies can proceed without capacity limits but with all other protective measures remaining in place. Thank you for your continued cooperation and support with regard to the health and safety standards for all attending Mass.

Guidelines for attending Mass:

- Facemasks must be worn in church during Mass and other services.
- Maintaining adequate social distancing.
- Please sanitise your hands when entering church at any time.
- Holy Communion should only be received in the hand.
- Please help to sanitise the church, wiping the seats after Mass or after a personal visit.

Blessing of the Graves Collection: Sincere thanks to all who contributed at the four graveyards in our Parish last weekend. Thanks to Fr Dariusz for the ceremonies and all the photographs on the parish website and Facebook page. The total contributions for the ongoing maintenance of the parish graveyards was €546.81. If you wish to contribute and were unable last weekend please put in an envelope marked for Graveyard Maintenance and put in box for weekly collections.

Remembering our Dead: We invite you to write the names of your dearly departed in the book at the altar in St Molua's Church. The list of names will be remembered during Masses in November.

Contributions: Thanks for your continued financial support of the parish at this time, your support is greatly appreciated in these difficult times. A number of payments have been received through the diocesan online donation facility and we are very grateful.

Confessions: Starting from the first Sunday of Advent (27th November) there will be Confessions available after each mass (Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday) for those who wish to avail.

Community/ Local News

O'Gonnelloe Craft Fair is cancelled! In light of current Covid numbers and the request for us all to reduce our contacts it has been decided to cancel this year's Fair. We are sorry to disappoint traders and shoppers. We look forward to returning in 2022!

Ogonnelloe GAA: Junior A Championship Final: The Club's showcase adult team are in the final of the Junior A Championship on Sunday at 12pm in Meelick against Crusheen. It is the first Championship Final for the Club since 2007 so these days are special and do not come around very often. Any and all support on the day would be greatly appreciated so that we can all share in the experience. The very best of luck to the team and their management and hopefully they can lift the Cup in a sea of Black & Amber on Sunday, and bring it home to O'Gonnelloe. Annual Race Night: The Club's annual Race Nite, which is used to fund the day-to-day running expenses of the Club for the year, for both our underage and adult teams, has been scheduled for Dec 11th in the Pipers. It has been a very successful playing year for the club, at both underage and adult levels, with multiple finals reached (U13 Academy B & U17B County Finals) and won (U13B and U17 Academy B County Champions, Division 3 League Champions), and we still have our Junior A Championship Final on Sunday as well as the upcoming U21 Championship. And, regardless of the result on Sunday, we will also be representing Clare in the upcoming Munster Junior Club Championship, with a Munster Quarter-Final to be played the weekend of Nov 27th/28th Vs Waterford. So, hopefully, as we get our horse-sellers mobilised over the next few weeks, you will be able to support the Club in some way. Camogie: The Club would like to wish the Scariff-Ogonnelloe Camogie Club the very best of luck in their Senior Championship Final on Saturday in Clarecastle at 2pm Vs Truagh-Clonlara. Hopefully both the Hurling and Camogie Clubs can do the double this weekend.

Cafe at Ogonnelloe Exchange: is opened on Saturday from 11.00am to 3.00pm. Clarecare operate the Cafe as part of their Connect Clare social enterprise venture, which is a new Clarecare initiative aiming to reconnect members of the public through conversation and community engagement in a cafe environment. We hope to see you there.

Scariff Ogonnelloe Camogie Club AGM: wish all their players, management team and supporters a safe and the very best of luck to our Seniors in the County Final on Sunday at 2pm in Clarecastle. AGM will be held on Thursday, November 18th at 8.30pm.

Team Hope Christmas Shoebox Appeal: Has been extended to Monday 15th November. Please ensure you return your box to Bane's Gift Shop, Scariff by 10am on Monday 15th November. Any queries to Joanne 086 8177649.
