Reflection:

*As we breathe the very air which sustains us,
we remember your love, God, which compels us.
Fills us with the spirit to seek understanding,
Empty us of apathy, selfishness and fear.
Fill us with compassion and generosity.
Empty us of all pessimism and hesitation.
Breathe into us solidarity will all who suffer
beneath the crossroads of pollution and poverty.
Breathe us into action building your sustainable Kingdom.
Hope.
We have only begun to imagine the fullness of life.
How could we tire of hope?
.....So much is in bud.....
We have only begun to know the power that is in us,
if we could join our solitude in the communion of struggle.
So much is unfolding that must complete its gesture.
So much is in bud.*
