Volunteer Ministries in the Killaloe Diocese: Message from Bishop Fintan: I am delighted to be launching our second phase of Lay Ministry training in the Diocese of Killaloe. This is a significant moment as we aspire to equip the Diocese of Killaloe to answer the call of Pope Francis for a Synodal Church in which co-responsibility will be a key hallmark. By empowering Ministers of Pastoral Care and Catechist we hope to enable and empower people across the diocese in expressing a vibrant and dynamic faith life. Ministry of Pastoral: The diocese is promoting this ministry in an effort to address the very pastoral needs in our parishes and pastoral areas. Ministers of Pastoral Care journey with the sick and bereaved, they stand with the marginalised, they are a listening ear at the heart of our communities and they animate various prayer ministries. Ministers of Pastoral Care are also mandated to invite others to join with them in this ministry of care and service. Ministry of Catechist: As a diocese we have a real need for Catechists. This is a ministry of educating young people and adults in faith. The Catechist helps to prepare candidates and their families for the sacrament of baptism, eucharist and confirmation. They also play a role in animating the Synodal process in our diocese. Catechists gift people with an understanding of their faith so as to enable them into a deeper relationship with God which they in turn are called to share with others.

Volunteer Ministries in the Killaloe Diocese: Information evenings on the training programmes for the Ministry of Catechist and the Ministry of Pastoral Care will be held at three locations across the Diocese in early September. These are the venues, times and dates:

Kilrush, Community Centre: Wednesday, 11th September 19.30.

Ennis, Pastoral Centre: Thursday 12th September 19.30.

Nenagh, Pastoral Centre: Monday 16th September 19.30.

At these meetings, Bishop Fintan will be present to formally launch this programme of training and formation.
